

The user begins by registering and logging into the system, then inputs preferences through the Profile Setup. The system retrieves and processes these preferences through the Roommate Matching Algorithm. The user can search for a potential using the Search & Filter method that will then display the results based on the preferences from there you can then view a certain users profile and message them.